From Classrooms to Capital Markets: Summer Camp 2025 Program□

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

From Classrooms to Capital Markets: Summer Camp 2025 is an immersive 4-week program organized by the Ethiopian Capital Market Authority to equip high potential university students and young professionals with foundational capital market knowledge and hands-on experience. The program combines structured training with a 2-week internship across ECMA's departments to get understanding of the Authority's operations, processes, and culture. Aimed at fostering inclusivity and industry readiness, the program selects participants through a merit-based process, emphasizing academic excellence, demonstrated interest in finance, and gender diversity. By bridging academia and industry, through this program, participants will gain valuable insights and expert knowledge, developing the skills necessary for a successful career in the evolving capital markets.
